ASSISTANCE This course is based in team decision-making. Therefore attendance and participation of students in the classroom is a must. The failure in the assistance of one student, damages other team members. Consequently, only those students with assistance over 80% will be evaluated. ASSESSMENT CRITERIA <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The evaluation system of the subject will be the same in all the calls, including the extraordinary one. In the case of failing in the ordinary call, the grades obtained during the development of the continuous evaluation will remain in force in the September call. If a student did not take the exam in a regular call, but did perform continuous assessment practices, the final grade should include the score obtained in those practices weighted by their weight in the final grade, and can't be considered as NOT PRESENTED.

- If a student does not take the final exam in the extraordinary call of September set by the Academic Secretariat, it will be considered as NOT PRESENTED in this call, regardless of whether or not the evaluation has been continuous. If the student did this exam, the grade will be obtained from applying the percentages established in the teaching guide of the subject.
- In general, a minimum percentage of assistance is not established to be able to follow the continuous evaluation system. However, the professor may require a certain percentage of assistance to perform relevant teamwork.
- The final exam will be held exclusively on the date of the official call established by the Dean of the Faculty of Commerce and Tourism.
- Partial eliminatory exams are not allowed. The final exam must be about the complete program of the subject.
- A final exam is mandatory. It must be individual and in written format.
- The exam may consist of a test (at least 40 questions); development questions (timing of an hour); a practical case of application of all the subject program.
- To pass the subject the grade obtained in the final exam must be equal to or higher than 4.0.
- The practices that are done during the class, only score the attending students on the precisely day that are taken.
- The works proposed to perform in team, can only be delivered in this way (not individually).
- Assessment activities or teamwork can't be delivered out of the established schedule.

OTHERS

- The continuous evaluation process in the group in which he/she has being enrolled. Group changes are not allowed except those managed through the Student Secretariat.
- The use of mobile phones in the classroom is not allowed
